dewn cellar emptying the crock he thought of a trick to surprise the agriculturist. Finding a stone weighing about eight pounds, the grocer greased it, carried it up-stairs with the crock, and, pointing to it, quietly remarked

"This, of course, is to be taken from the gross weight, as well as the jar." The farmer looked at the stone for several long seconds, and then in a voice so low that no one could hear, TRAVELING BAGS.

"Please kiver a piece of paper over the jar, for there's a man out by the door who knows me."

The grocer finally explained his fiendish plot, and the butter-seller's face underwent a sudden change.— Reaching over the sugar barrels to shake hands, he said:

"I didn't hardly believe it, though my wife came from a tricky family, and I should have gone home and organized mourning and lamentation in that

Whatever may be the strength of other grounds of confidence, it is as well that the one mentioned should be kept in the fore- quire: ground.

KEEP it before the people that Gov. Tilden was the successful plunderer of a dozen western reilroads, and the paid attorney of the Credit Mobilier.

.. The best Tea in this or any other

(George Alfred Townsend.) When Samuel J. Tilden, at a pretty ripe age, received the nomination for Governor of New York, it was given to him like a barren scepter, a foredoomed defeat. The party had been completely routed in the metropolis fully beg leave to lay before your honor and state by O'Brien's Tweed expossures, through the New York Times Nobody wanted to hold up the bespattered banner and add his name to the gnominious muster-roll of Tammany Hall. The honor went begging. Judge Sauferd E. Church was offered it by acclamation and declined, and even in the absence of a candidate Tilden would have been refused the nomination had he not worked for it with every unequal energy. It was his only chance. He brought to bear all patience, entreaty and anxiety, and they "For heaven's sake let him get this and be defeated, as he will, so he won't pester us any more.

The old chap took the nomination and went to work like a cat. He literally crawled over the whole ground, working night and day with nearly sublime patience. He had a residence in New York City, on Grammaroy l'ark, and there were a score, some say of clerks and copyists and lithograph presses, auditing books, the census, an arithmetic and a calculating machine employed there. He could take the employed there. He could take the much to small to supply the present deof Leo.

While Covernor Hayes was fighting rebels at the front, Clovernor Tilden was enriching himself by wrecking railroad, and pronouncing the war a failure, while Covernor Hendricks was badger, creeping as a terrapin, Newtonians and reading as a terrapin, Newtonians and reading as a terrapin, Newtonians and reading report accompanying mand. The financial report accompanying shows how much money has been expended, and for what purposes. We also ask your attention to the librarian's report for the actual working of library and reading room during the past eight months; the showing is certainly extraction, while Covernor Hendricks was badger, creeping as a terrapin, Newtonians and reading room during the past of library and proves conclusively that this institution, and the act that gave it square root of Cattaraugus county by mand. failure, while (lovernor Hendricks was badger, creeping as a terrapin, Newtoman in his range of view, and ambitious as the devil, this little old man, threatened with paralysis, confronted with old age, without a domestic companion, and folding his cold bones The New York Financial Bulletin away in feather beds to keep on earth discorns signs of returning prosperity, at all, fought Dix to the wall, beat him by subtraction, and was inaugurated

THE objection to Tilden dees not however, rest solely upon the fact that he has made seven or ten million dol-What was the evil that brought on lars as a railway lawyer, but equally upon the fact that, while accumulating this vast fortune, he has been the intimate associate of the greatest of Amertoan robbers-William M. The sum of money set spart by your honorable body for the support of the library this first year, has been barely enough to keep up the running expenses, but too small to enlarge the library enough to meet the wants of the constantly increasing crowd of borrowers. In fact, there are at present only about one hundred more books than readers, To adequately supply the wants of those already on the librarian's books, would require a library of 9,000 volumes—and we have but 1600 to give them. This leaves scarcely any choice of literature to the reader; and we beg that your honorable body will consider the neces sity which we urge, of an increase of the amount of money which is proposed to be levied for the support of the libra ry for the following year to at least double the first apportionment.

We believe that in order to accom-plish the object for which the library was opened, during this year twelve or fifteen hundred dollars worth of books and periodicals should be purchased; the and periodicals should be purchased; the books on hand were old and worn when we assumed this charge, and eight months of constant reading of the more popular works has rendered them, in a great measure, unfit either for rebinding or for longer circulation. Many books need renewing entirely, while the de-partments of popular science, history, biography, travels, and works of refer-

Custer, opuld, in a few weeks, make it upwards in law were all killed, and not one of his of 2,000. detachment escaped. Two hundred and seven men were buried in one place and the killed are estimated at 300, and 31 wounded. The Indians surrounded Reno's command, and held them in the hills one day cut off from water, until Gibbon's command came in sight, when they broke camp and left. The 7th Cav-alry fought like tigers, and were overcome by mere brute force. The Indian loss cannot be estimated, as they carried off and cached most of their killed. The remnant of the 7th Cavalry and Gibbon's command are returning to the mouth of the Little Horn, where the steamboat lies. There were 17 officers killed. The whole Custer family died at the head of their column The Indian camp was from three to four miles long, and was twenty miles up the river from its mouth. The Indians actually pulled men off their horses.

The above is confirmed by other letters, which say Custer met with fearful

DIAMOND RHBUMATIC CURE.

In its history, this invaluable Medicine occupies the most honorable position possible for any renewly to attain. A few years since it was known only to the friends and neighbors and patients of the proprietor, and always sought for by them whenever troubled with Rheumatism, and in this way came to the notice of physicians generally, and through their tavorable expression, and its acknowledged value as a Rheumatic Remedy, the demand for it became so frequent and urgent as to oblige its proprietor increase his facilities for its manufacture, its reputation rapidly extended, and soon orders, letters of enquiry, letters of hismiss, and certificates of pratise were daily received from all sections of the United States and Canada, and in this way, on a basis of its merit alone—unaided by "tricks of trade" or special efforts—it has risen to its present envisible position. We rever introduced it has received the most flattering preference in the treatment of all rheumatic compiaints. In this we are really grateful and happy, not alore because on medicine flush ready sale, and is consequently profitable to us do we may this, him because we onen a new field in medical science, and cure at once what the best medical practitioners have for ages found so difficult even to relieve the suffering and ministratione with the best medical practitioners have for ages found so difficult even to relieve the suffering and ministratione of the afficted, and consequently are remembered by militons of grateful souls.

The City Fathers Feasted.—Last evening, during the session of the City Council, a communication ; was received from the United Order of American Mechanies, inviting the Council at its adjournment to repair to the lodge room of the order over Hildebrandt's drug store, and assist in cutting a centennial cake. The invitation was accepted, and accordingly, upon adjournment, the Council went to the place designated, where an exceedingly pleasant time was enjoyed. The cake was cut by Mayor Chambers; and speeches were made by his Honor and Aldermou Peake and Muzzy. After cutting the cake in due form it rapidly disappeared, as did also a Prescott & Ce's on reasonable terms. generous supply of ice cream and lemonade. The tadies of several members of the order graced the occasion with fore co'clock, a poor fellow who had their presence. The cake was superb evidently been trying to slake his thirst and its accompaniments delicious, and at some saloen, passed along the side-

THE CENTENNIAL FAIR.

Now that the Fourth is over, we want talk with our readers about the Centennial Fair, which opens at the Macou county fair grounds on the 29th of August next. The Association embraces about six counties, all of which are manitesting a good deal of interest in the matter, and will be well represented in the various goods and chattels that enter into an exhibition of this kind .-Now what we want to say is that the people of Macon county should stand in the front rank so far as interest and effort are concerned. Every department of industry should be represented. The women of the county can do much to make the fair a success, and we hope that they will take time by the forelock and prepare their needle-work and other articles that come under their supervis-

This is to be a grand Centennial Fair, and with proper interest and effort it may be made to rival the State Fair in extent and variety. Everybody should .. Weather prophets are predicting talk it up, and be active in doing whatever will tend to awaken an interest and lead to effort on the part of others.

The premium list will soon be ready for distribution, and by reference to it people will see that a very interesting programme has been laid out, and that liberal premiums have been offered; and now it only remains to prepare the articles and stock for exhibition, and have them on the ground in good time.

Farmers, mechanics, artisans-men, women and children, let us all wake up to the matter, and we will have a Cen tennial Fair worthy of the name,

A Shooting Affray.-Lust evening a shooting allray took place in the northwest part of the city, in which three shots were fired but nobody hurt. It seems that Mr. Samuel Blackburn, who ives just north of the Mound, had some disagreement with a man; by the name of Bloom, about a bill that the latter's wife had paid to Blackburn's wife. In the settlement the women had disagreed, and Bloom's wife had not paid the other woman as much by ten cents/as she asked for a certain piece of work. Last evening, as we hear the story, as Blackburn passed Bloom's residence, the latter was at the door, and the former fell to abusing him about his wife's meanness in culting down the bill. The discussion waxed warm, and there were threats of whipping; and finally Bloom drew his revolver and fired three shots at Blackburn, nelther of which took effect. The latter came down town and procured a warrant for Bloom's arrest. which was served this morning. A hearing will be had this afternoon at 3 o'clock, before Justice Albert, at which time the real facts in the case will be Centenalal Bloody Noses. - Besides the fights and bloody noses that were heard of through the police courts as having taken place on the Fourth, there were several chaps who indulged in the these was one fellow who had a gash cut from the top of his head to the bottom of his jaw-bone, just front of his ear, and whose clothes were drenched with blood from his wounds. He declined to give any information as to who cut hlm, he told those who inquired that it was "none of their d-d business."

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. A. Close and family left last night Main street, and prosecuted as fast as the city finances will justify. S. Einstein is closing out his Linen for Albion, N. Y. They will be absent several weeks, and will probably visit the Centennial during their absence.

C. M. Allison has just returned from two months' tour through Colorado. He brings back a very nice cabinet of specimens of mineral ores, etc., peculiar .. Bird seeds of all kinds at Western to that country. Charley didn't "strike it rich" out there, and is better satisfied than ever that "the great corn belt" is a very good locality in which to do business. He has accepted a situation with A. H. Imboden, where he will be pleased to see his numerous friends.

This morning we had a very pleasant call from Prof. Schick, of Lincoln, teacher of modorn languages in the college at that place. He called in company with Eider N. S. Haynes, and Is here to talk with the people about the establishment of a college at this place at Isome future time. The Professor taught ten different languages.
